

SENIOR WILL

ARTICAL I

WE, THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1965, NO HEREBY LEAVE TO THE class below OUR NUMEROUS SENIOR PRIVELEDGES AND THE RESPECT THAT WAS SHOWN TO US BY THE LOWER CLASSES.

ARTICAL II

FURTHERMORE, WE LEAVE, IN GOOD FAITH, THE FOLLOWING: OUR PARKING LOTS, COMPLETE WITH SHOE-SHINE KIT TO CLEAN THE MUD FROM YOUR SHOES, OUR NO GRASS FOOTBALL "STADIUM", THE SOCK HOP AFTER THE LAST BASKETBALL GAME, THE ABILITY TO ROAM THE HALLS WITHOUT HALL PASSES, AND FINALLY, THE BEST ENGLISH TEACHER IN THE WORLD, MR. EIDSON.

I, Cheryl Bryan, do hereby will to the Junior girls my ability to be the first girl thrown out of the Powderpuff game and my black eye to Susan Belville.

Being rattled minded and weary bodied after Miss Foster's classes, I, Bonnie Byron, leave by ability to struggle through the year and like it to Brenda Dixon. I, James Lancaster, being of weak wind and decaying body, bequeth to all Juniors, in the Senior Hall rest room - an Ash Tray.

I, Barbara Allen, being of a tired body, do hereby bequeth my position as "Priestess of the Great White Camel" to ANYONE....

In circumlocution, I Gary F. Deaton, shunning maladroft grandiloquence, bequeath to our esteemed faculty the cognition that cliques, fiascoes, and instances of FAUX PAS with ESPRIT DA CORPS will optimistically impart universal sympathy.

We, Peggy Foyle and Betty Robinson, being of strong mind and weak body, having decided that nothing is good enough for the esteemed Junior class, do hereby will them — nothing!

I, Jeroy Fruitticher, do hereby will to all Junior boys my back seat on Bus 69 and my snuff waffers.

I, Robert Banning, being of unsound mind and worse body, do hereby leave Joy Jones, Ginny Aull, and Susan Weir Mr. McKenzie.

I, Barbara Ellison, being without mind and not much of a body, do leave to Kathy Ellison my diploma knowing she will never get one herself.

I, Joel Smith, will to Glenn Allen my ability to get in a fight at a basketball game and not get kicked out!

I, Rick Anderson, being of overworked mind and undernourshed body, leave my funny car and the ability to get to class late to Dave Slemmons.

I, Ursula Alexander, leave to the next President of the Senior Class my year's supply of Excedrin and my trusty .45 along with my manual, HOW TO GET ALONG WITH PEOPLE IN AUTHORITY.

I, Fay Raynor, will my ability to pull a fire alarm accidently, but NOT get caught to Carol Fincher.

I, Margaret Biggers, hereby leave all the pretty girls for Ricky Norman to flirt with and my Junior friends to watch after him.

I, Billy Brackin, being of sound mind and tired body do hereby leave my position as two-miler on the track team to anyone who wants it.

I, Mike Coleman, being of unsound mind and body do bequeth to Abb Dickson "Fingal's Cave" and five hundred dollars in halves.

I, Mary Bauer, will all my excuse writing ability to anyone who is brave enough to keep Coach Bullock's Driver's Training class

I, Janice Trout, being of a tired mind and a short body, will to all girls at Jonesboro next year the will power to keep their hands off Glenn.

I, Kay Tanner, do hereby will to anyone who hates to memorize the ability to stay out of school when Mr. Edison assigns memory work.

I, Tina Tillman, being of exhausted mind and body leave to Johnny Whaley "Bertha" and to Suzy Beam, I leave the basketball clip board hoping she keeps the shot chart better than I did.

We, Roddy Harrell, Richard Oaks, and Ray Duncan, being of orange mind do hereby leave to any orange minded Junior our orange pants.

I, Delores Owens, being of sound mind and fair health do hereby bequeth the following: To Vickie Adkins all my notes in Geometry, hoping that she will understand them better than I did.

I, Brenda Driver, being of unsound mind and weak body, leave to Pat Davis, "the talking room" knowing she can put it to use.

We, Churchill Downs Whaley, Denver Straights Smith, Mt. Everest Vincett, Potty Patty Purser, Rock of Gibraltar Howell, and Eiffel Tower Smarr; being of totally unsound teenage minds, do hereby leave our abilities to sing "Happy Birthday" in the lunchroom, to take up an entire table, and the right to be late to Clyde's 4th period Senior English class to anyone with the nerve to talk Mr. Smith into an excused tardy.

I, Linda Bitz, being of weak mind and sound body, do leave to anyone crazy enough to drive, my place in the parking lot.

I, Sandra Thompson, being of goofy mind and chubby body do leave to Carol Fincher all the weight I loose on my diet.

I, Joe Dowda, leave my orange pants to Virginia Nelson.

I, Jannette Hawthone, bequeath to Coach Chambers 15 cats, 14 dogs, and 13 pigs, in case he runs out of animals to cut on.

I, Linda Peters, being of no mind and no body, leave my genuine army helmet to any short Junior who's head is constantly trampled in the halls.

I, Kay Patton, being exhausted and worried, leave to Karen Coughlin my ability to always be on the good side of Stan and Eddie.

I, Butch Thompson, being of scattered body and shattered mind, do hereby leave this merry old hole to any deserving Junior.

I, Paula Black, would like to leave my squeaky and unpleasant voice, but nobody wants it, so I'll just leave, maybe!!!

I, Donna Godwin, leave to Polly Benefield the ability to turn circles in a road and end up in a ditch backwards, without knowing what happened.

I, Jane Hood, leave my book-keeping workbook to anyone who is crazy enough to take it, in hopes they do better than I did.

I, Sue Ellen Huckaby, do leave my place in the office to anyone who can afford roller skates, and I, Shelley Jeffers, just plain leave.

I, Diane Hollingworth, being of limited mind and short body do hereby leave my Powder-puff position and jersey to some brave Junior with a violent temper.

I, Cici Mims, do hereby leave my Family Living seat to any Junior ignorant enough to take it.

I, Sandra Blaylock, being of SENIOR intelligence and well developed body, leave to Emily Bailey my ability of lying to teachers, and to Carol Rutledge my Clyde notes.

I, Ernie Hanes, being of little mind and tortured body leave "Muddy Grand Canyon" (our paking lot) to "low-life underclassman" Laren Spratlin.

I, Gail Fincher, of weak mind and sound body, leave to Pat Hamilton the ability to run and be first in the lunch line everyday without being caught.

I, Bill Simmons, do hereby will the second seat on the fourth row of Mr. Edison's fifth period English class to Don Clonts.

I, Rheba Thompson, being of sound mind, do hereby leave to Theresa Thompson and Jimmy Atkinson my ability to not get in trouble but one time during Senior year.

I, Sharon Baumguard, being of superior intellect and delapidated body will nothing to no one because what little I have I need myself.
