

SENIOR PROPHECY

Let's look into the future of the Senior class and see what they will be doing twenty years from now.

Bernie Denham is captain of the SS Columbia.

Richard Campbell has another black eye.

Richard Kovaliski and Sonny Stewart are now owners of a chain of supermarkets in southern Ethiopia.

Gene Manley, Howard Pitman, and Jerry Smith are still on the city council of Ellenwood.

Stan Manous is head of a ball-bond company.

L. C. Mathis is a race car driver.

G. B. Maynard is a well known playboy in the welding set.

Frank Mitchell is a teller at the Bank of Jonesboro.

Robert Norman is still working hard at Middle Georgia.

Richard Oakes is head of the Oaks Grocery chain.

Gene Peyton has now reached the promise land of Virginia.

Jimmy Osburn has a TV show called "Sing Along With Jimmy."

Mike Prime is now running for president.

Eddie Rawls is still working at Georgia Maple Block.

James Ray is president of Gulf Oil.

Jerry Shockley is now chief of police in Jonesboro.

Bill Simmons just received his M. D. degree.

Joel Smith has received a full scholarship to U. of Ga. from Evans Impliment Company.

Rick Stevenson finally made it back to his beloved North.

Milton Tarpley is playing ball for the Atlanta Braves.

Butch Thompson is a ballet dancer for the Bolshoi.

Lamar Turner is photo editor for LIFE Magazine.

Jimmy Walker is head of NASCAR.

Mickey Garber is in deep research of which came first, the chicken or the egg.

Roddy Harrell is now owner of his own men's store.

Ronnie Helms is now married to his high school sweetheart.

Bill Herndon is now Rear Admiral in the US Navy.

Roger Hines is now star of "Stars of Tomorrow".

Kenny Johnson and Joe Wilcox are co-owners of a washteria.

James Lancaster is now playing in Al Hirt's band.

Edward Levi and Glenda Umphery are still battling it out.

Gary Lewellen just refused the Davis Cup.

Paul Lovin is now on a trip to Europe.

Sammy McEver has his own dairy.

Jimmy McLendon is now playing basketball for the Celtics.

Mike Maddox is a state senator. Tina Tillman and Phyllis Roberts are teachers at Hoodlum High, Forest Park.

Pat Hall found her college man. Janice Trout has just finished the exam on GONE WITH THE WIND to become a full-fledged southerner.

Barbara Ann Wallace was just voted "Betty Crocker of the Year" in Clayton County.

David Sims is a career Navy man.

Sandra Thompson is still working at Southern Bell.

Carolyn Sams is police woman in Lovejoy.

Yolanda Rutledge is now very happily married.

Ursula Alexander is now modeling for Rudi Grenwich.

Barbara Allen is a nurse in a Communicable Disease Center.

Gail Banks is secretary for Gerald Ballard who is head of "Krunchy - Munchy Crispies, Inc."

Sharon Bumguard is now coaching Duane in his try for an olympic gold medalian for wrestling.

Cheryl Bentley and Donna Longino obtained their "Mrs." degrees.

Joyce Betsil and Diane Broxton are now Shakesperean Actresses.

Linda and Brenda Betz now sing the "Doublemint" commercial.

Margaret Biggers is married to Ricky.

Jackie Birchfield, Paula Black, and Cheryl Bryan are all flying high for Delta.

Darnell Bishop, Mary Ann Bauer, Audrey Brown, Brenda Brakin Pam Boyington are all tending bar for Bill Doster, Joel Dowda, Harold Gillis, Philip Bird, Don Yowa, and Gerald Forrester.

Sandra Blaylock and Betty Robinson made a great breakthrough in medical science.

Diane Bruce is now "Miss Tall America."

Bonnie Byrom and Dale Dixon are now laughing their way through life.

Linda Calloway is still waiting for her soldier boy to come home.

Diane Camp now advertises for Dentu-Cream.

Cheryl Casey is still twirling away at the University of Georgia.

Linda Conkle is a policewoman.

Pat Culbreth, Brenda Driver, Joan Dunaway are teaching Allen Burks, Marshall Carpender, and Sherill Cleveland how to tune motors.

Jenny Deen, Deborah Powell, and Susan Segner are all fashion editors of Vogue magazine.

Joyce Farr, Barbara Duncan, Barbara Ellison, Gail Fincher, Diane Shipp, and Reba Thompson are running their own still.

Donna Godwin now has a yankee accent.

Lonnie Bacon is now working at Trader Eng's.

Harold Baldwin and Carl Knight are both contenders in the Masters' Golf Tournament.

Tommy Bedingfield is now singing lead for the "Hot Nuts."

Steve Binger is now assistant to Coach Mac.

Billy Brackin, is running the decathalon, for the U. S. Olympic team.

Bobby Brooke is now coaching "Midget Football" in Jonesboro.

Eddie Brown is now playing concert piano for the New York Philharmonic.

Don Burdette, Steve Lee, Tony Johnson, and Parks Mann are all co-owners of Kent's Food Stores.

Russell Cash is the head of the Atlanta Art Institute.

Peggy Foyle is still typing for Mr. Vest.

Susan Tate, Linda Hand, Patsy Webb, Ann Turner, and Glenda Umphrey all have houses full of kids.

Joanna Harrison is now in her fifth marriage.

Judy Henderson and Ricky Anderson now own their own racing stables.

Joan Hilverink is answering the phone at Pete Smith's Studio.

Betty Jean Hogue and Delores Owen are on the Harlem Globetrotters team with coach Walter Keiser.

Diane Hollingsworth is now serving a thirty day sentence for assault and battery to Susan McLaughlin.

Sheila Howell and Marilyn Mengal are now "bunnies" at the Red Room.

Nada Honea, Barbara Hood, Jane Hood, and Sue Ellen Huckaby run a honey farm.

Candi Huddleston, Sandra Palmer, Claudia Whaley, and Angela Stallings are all dwarfs for Grady Thompson, the "jolly, green giant."

Alice Higgins is now art editor for Playboy Magazine.

Kay Patton, Bonnie Johnson, Shelly Jeffers, and Pat Jackson are now practicing polygamy.

JoAnne Toomer is now playing at the Whiskey a Go Go.

Marie Wicks is still riding the surf at Jacksonville.

Marilyn Vincett was voted "Motor Mouth of the Year."

Her judge was Bob Darnell, a former classmate of the winner.

Jimmy Rushin was named to "The Ten Best Dressed Men" list for the third straight year.

Roger Hale and Dennis Germany are a comedy act now appearing at the Copa Cabana in New York.

Cathy McHugh and Howard Scarbrough are married and have twenty children.

Janice Johnston just won the Kentucky Derby.

Julie Mitchell and Faye Raynor are styling hair in Hollywood.

Anne Myers is legal secretary to Perry Mason.

Jean Owen is now an official "Navy Wife."

Linda Peters is still doing secretarial work for Coach Arnsler.

Mary Plumley is now playing Lady Macbeth at the South Expressway Drive-In.

Jean Powell is now passing Driver's Training.