SENIOR WILLS Con't

We, the trio of Donna Longino, Cheryl Bentley, and Brenda Brackin, leave our expert minds to anyone needing them to get out of class everyday.

I, Paul Norris, being of very sound mind and body, do hereby leave nothing to those, (censored) juniors.

I, Carol Miller, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath my parking lot space to Gail Miller, Louise Mann, Nancy Jackson, and Gail Roberts.

I Diane Camp, do leave to Jenny Shutley the ability to call Miss Foster "scroungehead" without getting in trouble.

I, Patricia Raulerson, being of overworked mind and decaying body, do leave to the last of our clan, Richard, the secrets of getting out of this place.

I, Jean Owen, leave to my sister Kathy the ability to hide anywhere in Miss Morris's sixth period English class.

I, Jo Ann Toomer, being of closed mind and open heart, will to Jane Miles the ability to go with a soldier.

I, Linda Meyer, being of exhausted mind and tired body, do hereby leave to anyone my ability to be a toy soldier in the Chorus play.

I, Darnell Bishop, leave to the future Seniors of JSHS the privilege of keeping Miss Foster informed*of all the latest news.

I, Barbara Hood, being of questionable mind and feeble body after substituting for absent teachers, do hereby bequeath my two happy years at JSHS to Gloria Jane, and Steve.

I, Richard Campbell, being of unsound and wizened body, do hereby leave my ability to talk in art class to Johnny Gilreath.

I, Gary Mitchell, being of corroded mind and beer - gutted body, do hereby leave Coach Amsler my creation, "The Major."

I, Susan McLaughlin, don't leave nothing to nobody because I didn't have nothing to start with, and what I do have I need myself.

I, Gene Manley, being of once sound mind and body, leave nothing to nobody.

I, Pamela Boynton, being of little mind and no body, leave what I didn't leave before I left-- if you know what I mean.

I, Charles Gilreath, do hereby leave my beloved (?) seat in Miss Oliver's Spanish one-half class to anyone who hasn't got enough sense to refuse it.

I, Carolyn Sams, being of fading humor leave Judy Bruce -- Rex to "Make or Break," and to Coach Chambers a new supply of good jokes.

I, Becky Payne, being of distorted mind and shabby body, hereby will to any junior the ability to make paper dolls out of chewing gum wrappers.

I, Roger Hines, being of sound body and pickled mind bequeath to Mr. Gilly the first period lab assistants and all future UN- PREPARED lab assistants.

I, Gail Smith, being of little mind and body hereby leave to Theresa Thompson my seat in homeroom five in hopes that she will fill it better than I did.

I, Janet Schneider, leave to Brenda Butler all the fun of my Senior year (????), and to Ann Dorman and Sandra Farr all my brains to divide between them.

I, Frankie Hughes, do leave my engagement ring to any Junior girl who wants it, because I surely don't.

I, Betty Jean Hogue, do hereby leave my seat in Miss Harden's government class to any sleepy Junior.

I, Sandra Hogeland, do hereby leave my seat in typing class to Debbie Chaney and my seat in Family Living to Susan Parrott.

I, Pamela Petsch, leave to my brother George my seat in Mr. Edison's room in hopes that he's wise enough to leave it empty.

I, John Adams, being of poor mind and poor body, leave to any underclassman all the orange pants they can buy.

I, Carol Sheridan, leave to my sister Gail the ability to learn to finish Edison tests after only two years of concentrated effort.

I, Linda Calloway, will my ability to be the only Senior in a Freshman P. E. class to Norma Davis, and I hope she enjoys it!

I, Jean Wofford, do hereby leave to any undeserving person the ability to be late for 4th period English and cause an all out war.

I, Parks Mann, being of questionable mind and wrecked body leave my chair in chorus and Miss Connie Cox to anyone who can put up with her.

I, Barbara Wallace, being of sound mind leave to Nathan Carrell the ability to cross Senior hall and get to the parking lot within a half second.

I, Donald Yow, being of unsound mind and being in a state of complete shock, do hereby will all my Senior privileges to Betty Montgomery.

I, Bill Doster, being of sound mind and large body do hereby leave all my charm and abilities to Mike, Regie and Neal.

I, Bobby Brooke, do hereby leave Coach Amsler the never ending hope of a future football stadium.

I, Lonnie Bacon, being of stupid mind do hereby bequeath my ability to drive my teachers crazy and still pass to my brother, Troy.

I, Philip Bird, being of morbid mind and broken body do happily leave Mrs. Holloway all the wonderful memories of me.

I, Carl Knight, hereby leave my sober nature and my ten conduct cuts for holding hands in the hall (my only sin) to any Junior.

I, Russell Cash, do hereby bequeath my ability to talk incessantly in the library without getting kicked out and my orange pants to Christine Davis.

I, Julie "Bug" Mitchell being of brilliant mind and beautiful body (joke) do leave to Diane Chitwood the microphone and "Two bits - Four bits" the essentials of a JSHS pep rally.
