

WHAT TO DO

Ever wonder what you could do different on a date? Well, we got to talking about it one day and we came up with these ideas.

Monopoly or Parcheesi are fun and with cokes and potato chips could turn a dull evening at the movies to an exciting evening at home. (This will help keep your billfold fat, boys.) Any kind of "parlor game", as mom and pop used to call them, can make a twosome or a foursome into a party if handled right.

A pizza party for a double date is another stay-at-home idea. Have a record player handy and plenty of records, and you'll have the receipt for plenty of laughs.

How about a trip to Grant Park one Sunday afternoon? A tour of the animals and then a rest in the old-fashion swings could really be fun. Yes, it would be an old-fashion date, but what's wrong with being old-fashion; after all kissing is old-fashion.

Boys, how about talking that special girl fishing? You'd look mighty strong baiting that hook with a slimy, gooy, ugly worm.

Watching movies on TV can be "a whole bunch" of fun. You can have your pick of nights Monday, Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday. It beats fighting the crowds to get to the balconies.

We kicked the ball to make it roll, now you think of some more things to do. We're sure you can think of something more than the Varsity and the drive-in. Can't you???

GRATITUDE

The dictator was stretched out on his death bed. By his side was his right hand man, tears streaming down his face.

"Do not grieve", whispered the dictator. "I want to leave you my money, my cars, my plane, my estates, my yacht—the whole country."

"Thank you, thank you!" cried the aide. "You have been too good to me. If there were only something I could do for you."

"There is," gasped the dictator. "Take your foot off the oxygen tube."

WATCH WHAT YOU SAY BOYS

You may call a girl a kitten, but you must not call her a cat. You may call her a mouse, but you must not call her a rat. You may call her a duck, but you must not call her a goose. You may call her a vision, but you must not call her a sight.
